TESTIMONIALS

Keri

Images of Black women unapologetically taking care of themselves are few and far between. But it is a state of being that needs to be normalized. And I think RVL is doing just that.

Gbemi

This puzzle was so beautiful. This is my first puzzle and I liked that it felt manageable to do. The end result was so worth it, I had to buy a frame to keep it.

Cassandre

Thank you for making me realize self-care is more than spa days and Sunday brunch. A big part of self-care is spending time with ourselves and allowing our minds to recharge. Your puzzles do that for me.

A Note From Our Founder

Hey Sis!

Allow me to officially welcome you to our tribe.

During the peak of the pandemic, I found myself struggling with anxiety and depression. My therapist suggested that I try recalling times from my childhood that brought me joy.

The first memory that came to mind was sitting at the kitchen table doing puzzles with my grandmother and the peace I felt in those moments.

I created RVL Wellness to help other women like myself rediscover their joy and secure their peace with every piece.
