Meet Sanailer

Sanailer Whidbee, EA founded Whidbee Accounting in 2016 after devoting over 10 years to both public and private accounting services. Earning her degree in Mathematics and Accounting in 2008 from NC State University, Sanailer worked in public accounting, preparing tax returns for both individuals and organizations. She later transitioned to private accounting, providing payroll, tax preparation, and financial strategies for individuals, corporations, estates, and non-profit organizations. Sanailer is passionate towards helping medium to large businesses and non-profits grow and meet their financial goals. Through her firm, she provides tailored financial services to medium to large businesses, non-profits, and entrepreneurs. When not handling businesses' accounting needs, Sanailer is enjoying quality family time and beach vacations with her husband and two children.

“I view all businesses as flowers. They just need water and light to help them grow.”
